Time is money. I have heard this a lot in my lifetime, but how true it is? Well, coming from a credentialing standpoint, I find it to be very true! Enrolling with different payors always means multiple processes, different paperwork requirements, and different timelines for processing. Finding someone in your practice who has the qualifications to manage all of those nuances on their own can be frustrating for everyone. Let's not forget it is also time consuming to recreate the wheel!

We know that your time is valuable and we have the expertise to work with your organization to maximize your time AND to help alleviate long drawn-out timelines. Here at 1st Credentialing, we are keenly aware of the issues with providers and insurance companies. Our job is to help mitigate that for you. We also want to communicate with you about your projects so we have a client portal where you can see all of your missing information, applications that need signatures, run reports, upload documents and much more! Additionally, we send automated reports bi-weekly and we set up meetings to touch base with your office to ensure we are working on your priorities first.

1st Credentialing understands that the longer it takes for an application to complete, the longer you are not getting paid. Our internal processes are efficient and successful.

Let time be on your side by us doing the work for you and decrease the delays with insurances. Afterall, time is money!
Best!
Heidi

DID YOU KNOW THAT THE EXPRESSION TIME IS MONEY COMES FROM BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

It appeared in his essay "Advice to a Young Tradesman" in 1748. In this essay, Franklin emphasizes the importance of time management in business and how wasting time equates to wasting potential earnings. Here's the quote:
"Remember that Time is Money. He that can earn Ten Shillings a Day by his Labour, and goes abroad, or sits idle one half of that Day, tho' he spends but Sixpence during his Diversion or Idleness, ought not to reckon That the only Expense; he has really spent or rather thrown away Five Shillings besides."

MEDICARE'S PROVIDER ACCEPTANCE CHANGES – MENTAL HEALTH 2024

1st Credentialing has received notification from Medicare that Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist's (LMFT) and Mental Health Counselor's (MHC) will now be accepted into the network as of January 1, 2024. We can start the application process now for a Jan ary effective date. Please contact your Sr. Coordinator on your account to start the process or find a time to speak with our sales staff about how we can help.
